NOTES

25X1

West Germany - USSR: Bonn has evidently decided to proceed promptly with the next round of negotiations on a renunciation of force agreement. The West German ambassador in Moscow informed Foreign Minister Gromyko on 14 July that Foreign Minister Scheel planned to arrive on 26 or 27 July to renew the talks. Gromyko acquiesced, and said he had the impression that a majority of West Germans still favor agreement with the USSR and Eastern Europe, an assessment in line with Soviet press commentary on German Eastern policy. The West Germans are generally optimistic about their chances for success in Moscow.
